

REBECCA CROSS GROOMING SEMINAR

The West Highland White Terrier Club of Greater Denver and the Scottish Terrier Club of Greater Denver are pleased to present a grooming seminar/workshop for 15 participants with dogs and an additional 20 attendees as auditors. The workshop will be held at Island Grove Regional Park in Greeley on Thursday, August 15 from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.

Rebecca Cross of Sarahjoy's Professional Handling is recognized for her successful grooming/conditioning and showing of top show dogs internationally. Rebecca and her staff have also become known for providing outstanding grooming seminars internationally and we are pleased to have Rebecca and her staff join us for a day in Greeley.

Rebecca tailors her workshops to address the questions and issues expressed by her workshop audience and will include proper stripping and finishing work demonstrations on both Scottie and Westie show dogs.

PARTICIPANTS

The seminar is limited to best address the questions of the workshop participants and auditors and will fill quickly. A wait list will be kept and individuals from that list will fill in for any cancellations.

$150.00+$10.00 for non-club members (WHWT CGD or STCGD) –15 persons and their dogs will experience a hands-on opportunity to work with Rebecca and her staff.

$50.00+$10.00 for non-club members (WHWT CGD or STCGD) – 20 auditors for observing without a dog

All persons wishing to enroll in the seminar/workshop please email their interest to Lianne Smith at vp@whwtcgd.com and submit their enrollment information, including name, address, phone and email, and fee to Lianne Smith by mailing a check to P.O.
